

THE FIELD IS SILENT

And the Army of Noble Women Has Retired to Their Homes.

Norwalk Gets Next Meeting

Of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, Which Closed Its Annual Session in Lima Last Night. Warm Congratulations in Report of Resolutions.

The thirty-fifth annual meeting of the Cincinnati branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society closed with the session yesterday evening, and the delegates who remained until the close, took leave today of their kind hostesses. Returning to their homes to await the next annual convention, they carry with them the inspiration that comes from a meeting full of splendid results, and the positive assurance of even greater deeds for the future. The society has long passed the infant stage. It has reached the prime of active womanhood, and is pressing forward in the movement at a rate that cannot be retarded.

The committee on resolutions whose report appears today, speaks from their hearts and gives valiant praise to the city, its people, the church and its workers, in fact all who joined in the purpose of making the meeting one long to be remembered. The same feeling of appreciation was displayed by the delegates, many of whom took occasion to express their obligations to the earnest women of Lima. The city, on the other hand, was glad to entertain the society, and has profited by the association.

Norwalk was chosen for the meeting next year, and Lima can send congratulations in advance to the city near the lake, as the honor of acting as hostess to this noble society is no slight one, and should so be regarded.

TOUCHING MOMENTS

Characterized the Session Held Yesterday Afternoon.

After a bountiful repast served at the church during the noon hour yesterday, the society convened to complete what still remained of important business.

The session opened with devotional exercises conducted by Mrs. T. H. Pearne, and then followed the final reports of the committees. On enrollment, all officers of the branch were reported present except Mrs. Kuntz, the receiving treasurer, who was represented by Miss Bramble. At the conference secretaries registered except Tennessee and Central German. There were twelve missionaries present, and the whole number, including delegates and visitors was 251. The largest single delegation was from Central Ohio, which reported 125.

Miss Carrie Jewell, missionary to China, gave an interesting address on the country and its people, illustrated with maps of the world, and Chinese provinces that were made by young students in the schools. It was a wonderful evidence of progress under wholesome and Christian influence. Miss Jewell also had an exhibition, and for sale, some marvelous pieces of fancy work done by the women of China.

Mrs. J. H. Creighton paid a warm tribute to Miss Elizabeth Russell, a missionary for twenty-five years to Japan, in appreciation of her long and faithful service. Resolutions were sent to her by the branch, as a further mark of love, and assurance of good wishes on this, her 25th anniversary of her work in the far East.

A very impressive service was that which followed, when the conference secretaries, standing with their delegates, called the roll of those who had died during the year. The Van Wert ladies quartette sang tenderly, "When My Life Work is Ended, and I Cross the Narrow Sea."

Dr. Emma, Ernberger, of Korea, representing the seat of the great war in the far East, was listened to attentively. Korea is divided into three districts and there is no limit to the openings for evangelistic work. The Cincinnati branch has six missionaries stationed on the little peninsula.

An invitation from the auxiliary and circles of Norwalk, O., to hold the next annual meeting in that city, was unanimously accepted.

A motion to elect a secretary of young people's work was adopted and the choice fell to Mrs. A. M. Courten.

Miss Grace Todd was elected to fill the place of Branch organizer which Miss Curtis had resigned. A secretary for children's work was also proposed and a committee appointed to select a suitable person for the new office. In the absence of Mrs. Kuntz, the receiving treasurer, who was detained at home, congratulations and love were sent by the society.

The election of officers resulted in the adoption of the report of the nominating committee, which was published yesterday, the vote of the society being cast by the secretary.

Mrs. C. S. Emerald expressed for the branch its enduring love for Mrs. W. B. Davis, the retiring president, and appreciation of her long and devoted service to the work. Mrs. Davis responded to the tender notice, recalling her connection with the society since 1879 as recording secretary and treasurer, and since 1894 as president of the Branch, an office which she has filled with unfailing will and ability. She spoke words of tenderness and love for her co-workers, all of whom hold her in the warmest recesses of their hearts. Her retirement was a matter of deepest regret, and the Branch has never witnessed a more touching scene than when Mrs. Davis introduced the new officers.

Mrs. John Mitchell offered resolutions of love and appreciation for Mrs. B. R. Cowen, who, for 35 years, had held the office of corresponding secretary of the Branch. They expressed unspeakable sorrow at her resignation. Mrs. Mitchell moved that Mrs. Cowen be made corresponding secretary emerita of the Branch and the motion was enthusiastically carried. Mrs. Cowen responded in a few well-chosen words, and the session closed with the benediction.

WARM EXPRESSIONS

As Framed in the Report of the Committee on Resolutions.

Mrs. L. N. Morris, of Postoria, has given the responsibility of framing the resolutions, and in a kindly manner the report thanks all who in any way contributed to the success of the meeting.

Ladies President, Members of the Cincinnati Branch:

Your committee on resolutions beg leave to submit the following:

Whereas, God, the father of all mankind, the giver of every perfect gift, has signally blessed the effort put forth by the officers and other members of the branch this year, we do pause at the close of this helpful meeting and earnestly offer to Him our heartfelt thanks for these, His manifold mercies to us as individuals, and as a branch, and

Whereas, he it resolved, that at this time we acknowledge the untiring labors, the fervent prayers and great faith of our beloved officers, and regret that our dear president and corresponding secretary, after twenty years of faithful service, must retire, and we pray God to hover over them with His richest blessings and tenderest care; to their successors we pledge our support, and hope for their great success the ensuing year, and

Whereas, our stay has been so pleasant here in this city,

Resolved, That to Mrs. George A. Hall, the head of the local committee, and her noble corps of assistants, who by her foresight, promptness and interest in the individual needs of each delegate and visitor, be extended our most cordial thanks.

For those, our hostesses, who have so royally entertained those doing the King's business, we bespeak the King's blessings.

To the leader of the music, the choir, the ladies' quartette, and the soloists, who have so delighted us with their sermons in song:

To the heads of the various committees who have labored so hard for our temporal comforts;

To the prompt and willing pages, to

PANAMA HISTORY IN TWO BRIEF CHAPTERS.

the pastor of Trinity church, for their polite ushers, to the obliging and patient railroad official and secretary, to the newspapers and their reporters:

To the local pastors and especially the pastor of Trinity church, for the kind words and active support of the King's business:

Resolved, That to all of these be extended our thanks and assurance of our prayers, that God may pour out upon all the oil of plenty, and His goodness may richly flow into every life and home in this beautiful, hospitable city, and stimulate the flow of love and means into the treasury of God.

Resolved, That to each and every one who has given time, thought and words, in papers, addresses and plans for success in this meeting, we extend our appreciative thanks, and we would make especial mention of Mrs. Townsend's helpful hour for the young women, and Mrs. Pearne's soul uplifting words at our devotional services. "To those that hath shall be given."

Resolved, That to the two faithful missionaries, be extended assurance that their presence and counseling words among us this session have been very helpful, and to Miss Ayres we offer thanks for the vivid glimpses of our sisters in our neighbor republic, Mexico.

Now from this mountain top of privilege and blessing

Resolved, That we as attendants upon this branch meeting, go to our several homes to tuck into the valley, and continue to scatter the seed of loving deeds, offer fervent prayer and exhibit unlimited faith.

Since God's presence and revelation has been so manifest here, we do further resolve, one and all, to be much in prayer for God's blessing on the money, the plans, the workers and the work, the God unto whom "shall the gathering of the nations be."

LARGE AUDIENCE

Attended the Closing Hours and Adjournment of the Meeting.

The largest audience during the convention was present at Trinity church last night, and greatly enjoyed a splendid program, the most interesting feature being the "Sketch of a Mexican Girl," by Senora Juan Cabrera, a native of the country and a product of the good seed sown by the faithful missionaries in a corner of our own America.

The Senora appeared in the picturesque costume of Spanish Mexico, and of beautiful face and form, her figure stood as a statue of the faith which came into her life amid scenes of dire distress, poverty and superstition. Her delivery was remarkable, and the soft accent of the Spanish added a charm which won the hearts of her listeners, and held their attention from beginning to close. It was a sketch of her own being, and what cheer the women of the mission felt as she unraveled the threads of her life, and came to the moment when a glimmer of light found its way into her home, and opened to her the realization of a soul. She closed her sketch with a chant, sung in a deep rich contralto, in touching harmony with the deep chords of the pipe organ, and the audience, which sat entranced through it all, relieved the silent tension by a tremendous burst of applause.

The address on Mexico, by Miss Harriet L. Ayres, who has done long years of service in that country as a missionary, impressed everybody with its logic. The situation in the land so near home, is of a different nature than exists in the benighted countries of the far East, but the need of mission work, in order to awaken the poorer classes to a knowledge of their ignorance, and rescue them from a power as hateful as idolatry, was strongly portrayed by the speaker.

The music last night was especially good and included an organ prelude by Prof. Richmond, violin duet by Misses Hazel Axline and Lena Rudy, a duet by Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Eber, and a solo by the former.

The convention closed with the reading of the report of the committee on resolutions and a collection which met a ready response.

WORLD OF WORK ACCOMPLISHED

One of the most important offices of the society, is that of Branch Organizer, from which Mrs. Mary Carr Curtis, of Malaysia, retired at the close of the session. Her report, which is given in full, details the wonderful work accomplished during the past year:

A Branch organizer might be likened to the honey bee flying from one auxiliary flower to another, coming at the end of the long flight to this busy hive, the annual Branch meeting, bringing the results of her labor.

I trust that the facts I have to present today, may encourage you as one worker lays down her burden, to send out others, for the Cincinnati Branch is a land of milk and honey, and there remaineth land to be possessed.

The report for the past year is as follows:

Miles traveled	7,312
Public addresses	204
Private talks	373
New Auxiliaries	24
New auxiliary members	24
New standard bearer organizations	67
New standard bearer members	658
New King's herald organizations	8
New King's herald members	155
Little Light Bearers	28
Mite boxes distributed	1,096
Special agents C. M. F.	58
Special work	$ 816.53
For literature and other local expenses	179.25
Total new organizations	60
Total new members	1,508
Estimated income to Branch
from the year's work	$3020.00
I repeat this last item, but there should be lurking in the mind of any one a doubt as to the office of branch organizer from a financial standpoint.
Estimated income to the branch from one year's work	$2020.00

There are many things connected with this work which can not be represented in a statistical report, chief among which is the item of correspondence. In a recent Minneapolis Branch quarterly some one remarked that the new auxiliaries needed a motherizer as well as an organizer. It is this part of my work, as well as other necessary correspondence which has proved a load too heavy to be drawn by one whose days are spent in travel and nights in exhausting public meetings, yet one forgets the headaching hours spent in writing instead of resting when letters come such as these from which I give extracts. Letters from three young women of three different states.

The first one writes from Ohio. "I was glad to hear from you and hear about the little Jap. I will be glad to support."

The second, a Kentucky girl writes: "I expect to have $10.00 in my mite box by Christmas."

The third comes from a West Virginia girl preparing for missionary work.

"I entered Folt's Institute early this month and, oh, how glad I am you sent me here."

Another very important part of my work has been special efforts in establishing new auxiliaries. How easy it would be if an auxiliary could be organized by making a public address, after which members are enrolled, and then one had merely to rise and ask: "Whom will you have for officers?" But experience has shown that there is likely to be very little organic life in an auxiliary started in this way. There must be a foundation and scaffolding until the well furnished auxiliary stands alone. I have found two things most helpful in this work. The Sidney system of circulating missionary budgets and a children's reading contest.

Another, and, as it seems to me, a most profitable part of my work has been along the line of district organization. No one can fill the office of motherizer as a district officer can.

An organizer may start a little auxiliary spinning, but unless there is a district officer at hand to give it now and then a friendly twist, the motion is likely to stop. When an organizer is allowed two days, and, alas, sometimes but one, in a place where the W. F. M. S. is an unknown part of our church economy, it is impossible to do more than to stir up an interest. There must be a district treasurer to write to the new treasurer in a kindly way about "our district fund." A district corresponding secretary who will take time to study the situation and to write to the new corresponding secretary about "our district report." A district president to give a word of cheer to the new president as she starts out to face the difficulties of the way and bid her look forward to that house beautiful, the district convention.

I have to report today after a year and a half of travel from northern corners of Ohio to southern boundaries of Tennessee, and from the bracing mountain towns of West Virginia to the fertile lowlands of western Kentucky, that the crying need of our Branch is strong, comprehensive systematic, district and conference organization—the right woman in the right place.

A division of labor by which the work will not be so heavy that it will overtax one woman; a division of labor in which each officer shall have her own responsibility and shall relieve to herself the duty toward her work; a division of labor by which each officer may be a widening circle of influence; and that by the outpouring of the spirit of the Almighty; these rippling circles may unite until one great sweeping storm of consecrated service may tear its way over these four states and over sisters on the other side who will rejoice in the sunshine of their Creator's love, as we stretch out across the seas, the bow of God's promise to them.

Planetary Phenomena.

The brighter planets are still too close to the sun for easy observation, excepting Saturn and Jupiter, which may be seen in the south and east, respectively. Saturn is stationary on the 18th, and Jupiter is in opposition with the sun on the same day.

Observatories have always had as one of their most important practical duties the determination of correct time. Many stars have had their places so carefully measured that we know within a small fraction of a second the instant they cross the north and south line, called the meridian. It is evident then, that if we watch such a star and notice the time by a clock when it is on the meridian, we have the error of our clock by taking the difference between the clock time and the known time of the star's transit. The instrument used for this purpose, called a transit, is placed with its axis east and west, so that one may observe a star on the meridian at any altitude. The star's image is closely watched as it crosses the spider lines fixed in the eye-end of the instrument. Instead of using but one thread it is of course better to use more—five in our transit—as the average of five observations is more accurate than a single observation. As the star approaches a thread the observer counts the second ticks of the clock beside him. Suppose at one tick the star is on one side of the thread and at the next tick on the other side; one can then estimate to a tenth of a second the time when it was on that thread. It must be noted that the middle line or the average of these five lines ought to be so situated that the star's image reaches it at the same instant as the star reaches the meridian, if you are to obtain the correction by simple subtraction as above. Instruments are always imperfect and their position and adjustments are always to error. But those errors are measured each time the instrument is used, and how well this can be done may be judged by the fact that in observing four or five stars in an evening and applying such corrections to the observed time for each star separately, the final corrections for our clock differ from each other by not more than one or two tenths of a second. The average of these corrections is then taken as the clock error. The U. S. Naval Observatory sends this accurate time to all parts of the country, by telegraph, each day at noon.

Visitors are received at The Emerson McMillin observatory of the Ohio State University on the first and third Wednesdays of the month, during the college year, if the night is clear.

REMEDY SUGGESTED TO STOP COLLISIONS.

Commenting on the recent Missouri Pacific collision in which so many World's Fair excursionists lost their lives, the Chicago Record-Herald says:

"At the inquest held at Warrensburg to determine the cause of the collision of Missouri Pacific trains which occurred a few miles east of that town on Monday morning remarkable testimony was elicited by the coroner. By a strange and fatal coincidence, the case is almost a reproduction of that which was tried in a Philadelphia court last week and to the essential issue of which The Record-Herald called attention the other day.

"Of the Missouri Pacific trains which collided with results so terrible one was a crowded passenger train, consisting of two coaches, a Pullman and a caboose, and the other an extra freight train. The crew of the latter had received orders to take the siding at Monticerrat and let the passenger train No. 30 go through in two sections. The first section went past in due time, and had the proper signals set indicating that the second was following. Then the conductor, according to his own testimony, 'dozed off, and the first thing I knew our train was pulling out.'"

"It seems that he relied on the judgment of the engineer, who knew the orders as well as himself, and made no inquiry. The engineer had seen another passenger train pass, which he had mistaken for the second section of No. 30, but which was the regular train No. 50.

"In the Pennsylvania case both the conductor and the engineer 'dozed off' from sheer weariness and exhaustion; in this new instance the conductor's blunder remains unexplained, but if the conductor had not fallen asleep he would probably have identified the second train and prevented the accident.

"Whether overwork was an element in this calamity further investigation will doubtless disclose. Meantime, it is not unfair to point to the imperative necessity of removing without delay or hesitation this needless cause of disaster and tragedies. So conservative a paper as the New York Journal of Commerce, after an examination of the views of our railway managers on the alarming series of wrecks, reaches the following conclusion: "When the laws of the various states agree in making it a good deal more expensive to kill or to maim than it is to take the precautions needed, the percentage of railroad accidents will show a measurable decrease." Our legislators will find it impossible to ignore the serious problem of railway accidents."

NORTHEAST STORM DROVE STEAMER DOWN

Coast Until She Struck Bar, and This Morning Smashed to Pieces. It Is Believed Not a Soul on Board Survived.

Chatham, Mass., Oct. 14.—Driven down the coast by a northeast storm, the Nova Scotia schooner Wentworth went on Chatham bar last night and this morning had smashed to pieces in the terrific surf. It is believed that not a soul on board survived.

At seven o'clock this morning, the body of a woman was dragged out of the breakers by the government life-savers who had been waiting on the beach, powerless to aid since the vessel went onto the bar. At eight o'clock today, another body, that of a man, was recovered.

It is believed that in addition to the unfortunate woman, the ill-fated vessel carried a crew of at least eight men, besides her skipper, Captain Freddie.

The Wentworth was a three-masted schooner owned in Windsor, N. S., and was bound from Ellsworth, N. B., to New York with a load of produce.

It was just before dark last night that the schooner was seen by the keeper of the Nauset lights, flying south before the gale, with her fore-sail set. It was believed she would be able to make a safe harborage behind the Handkerchief Shoal, but at 5 o'clock, the south patrol of the Old Harbor life saving station, ten miles below Nauset, discovered the schooner on the outer bar. The Old Harbor life saving crew were on the beach within a short time, and began their efforts to save those on the doomed vessel. Several times lines were shot out to the schooner, and she was hauled through megaphones and signaled by torches, but there came no sign of life from the vessel although lights were shining in the cabin.

The life-savers remained on the scene all night. At day-break today it was seen that two of the schooner's crew had gone by the beach, and that two more were spotted some distance out in the bay.

THE

Resignation of Mr. White

Causes Some

Anxiety Among Many L. E. & W. Officials.

Successor Not Named so far as Is Known in Lima.

Detroit Southern Brakeman Killed Under Cars. Wabash to Build Union Depot in Toledo. Railway Notes.

The resignation of Master Mechanic White, of the L. E. & W., announced yesterday, has, as such changes usually do, created consternation among the officials and employees who are directly under his jurisdiction. There is much speculation as to the policy of Mr. White's successor and naturally each man wonders whose head will be first to fall into the basket, for many changes in the office forces usually go with the installation of a new chief.

Mr. White's successor has not yet been named so far as is known here. The resignation of the present master mechanic was given, verbally, to Superintendent Ball, of the motive power department, day before yesterday and at 3 o'clock yesterday afternoon had not yet been placed in writing.

Mr. White speaks in the highest terms of praise for the office men who have served under him during the four and a half years he has been master mechanic here and states frankly that he hates to part from his efficient force.

Union Depot in Toledo.

While in Toledo last Tuesday, President Ramsey, of the Wabash, made the statement that a union depot, which would accommodate all of the roads running into that city would be built in the near future. The building will be erected on Adams street by the Wabash, and when completed seven of the eight roads in that city will use it. Mr. Ramsey also said that a franchise to cross certain streets in Toledo would be asked of the council, accompanying the statement by the information that the Wabash was now ready and anxious to take up the construction of the cross town line.

An Inspection Trip.

Officials and directors of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton will start from Buffalo Sunday evening on an inspection trip over all the lines of the C. H. and D. system, including the Pere Marquette and the Chicago, Cincinnati and Louisville roads. In the inspection party will be President Zimmerman, Vice Presidents Harding and Parker, General Manager Edison and Directors Otis, of Cleveland, and Shurt and Turnbull, of New York. The party will reach Cincinnati next Wednesday to attend the meeting of the new board of directors, when the board will organize by electing officers.

Telephones on Trains.

An innovation in railroad passenger train service is to be made that will be watched with no little interest by officials of important lines who are on the lookout for improvements to the general attractiveness of their line. It consists of a system of telephones which will connect each car of the train and also the cab of the locomotive and baggage car. Passengers can talk to any portion of the train from their seat and the crew can talk to the engineer without stopping the train. To what extent this system will be carried out will develop after its practical demonstration. The first experiment is to be tried on a special train which is to take the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of Pittsburgh over its next trade excursion, commencing Monday and going for six days, covering 1,000 miles of road.—Pitt. Wayne Sentinel.

Under the Wheels.

Charles Kauth, assistant yardmaster for the C. H. & D. in Cincinnati, was killed Wednesday, by falling under a switch engine on which he had been riding. The accident occurred near what is known as Millcreek bridge. The deceased was a widower and is survived by one daughter who resides in Cleveland.

Goes Out Saturday.

C. C. Waldo, general manager of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, who is to be succeeded by J. A. Edison, will sever his connection with the company next Saturday. Mr. Waldo is held in very high esteem by all the C. H. & D. employees.

Brakeman Injured.

George Ruhlbaugh, a brakeman employed on the Detroit Southern railroad, while preparing to go out on a run last night, stepped between two cars in the local yards to make a coupling and was quite severely pinched, the cars coming so close together that he was caught between them. No bones were broken, but the brakeman was so painfully injured that Bennett's ambulance was called and he was removed to the city hospital.

The new Pennsylvania track between Arcola and Larwell, Ind., was put into service yesterday morning and the force of workmen was immediately set at work lining up the old track. In ten days this task will be completed and the Pennsylvania will then be double tracked in its entirety. The Western Ohio ran a special car from Sidney to New Bremen yesterday afternoon for the accommodation of Sidney lodge of Elks, who attended the funeral of Edward Purpus, late mayor of New Bremen.

Some Seasonable Advice.

It may be a piece of superfluous advice to urge people at this season of the year to lay in a supply of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is almost sure to be needed before winter is over, and much more prompt and satisfactory results are obtained when taken as soon as a cold is contracted and before it has become settled in the system, which can only be done by keeping the remedy at hand. This remedy is so widely known and so altogether good that no one should hesitate about buying it in preference to any other. It is for sale by all druggists.

YOUR KIDNEYS ARE THEY WELL?

Unless they are, good health is impossible.

Every drop of blood in the body passes through and is filtered by healthy kidneys every three minutes. Sound kidneys strain out the impurities from the blood, diseased kidneys do not, hence you are sick. FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE makes the kidneys well so they will eliminate the poisons from the blood. It removes the cause of the many diseases resulting from disordered kidneys which have allowed your whole system to become poisoned.

Rheumatism, Bad Blood, Gout, Gravel, Dropsy, Inflammation of the Bladder, Diabetes and Bright's Disease, and many others, are all due to disordered kidneys. A simple test for Kidney disease is to set aside your urine in a bottle or glass for twenty-four hours. If there is a sediment or a cloudy appearance, it indicates that your kidneys are diseased, and unless something is done they become more and more affected until Bright's Disease or Diabetes develops.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is the only preparation which will positively cure all forms of Kidney and Bladder troubles, and cure you permanently. It is a safe remedy and certain in results.

If You are a sufferer, take FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE at once. It will make you well.

Some Pronounced Incurable

Mr. G. A. Stillson, a merchant of Tampa, Fla., writes: "FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE is meeting with wonderful success. It has cured some cases here that physicians pronounced incurable. I myself am able to testify to its merits. My last urine is a living picture of health and FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE has made it such."

Bad Lambo and Kidney Trouble

Edward Hess, a well known business man of Salisbury, Mo., writes: "I wish to say for the benefit of others, that I was a sufferer from lambo and kidney trouble, and all the remedies I took gave me no relief. I began to take FOLEY'S KIDNEY CURE, and after the use of three bottles I am cured."

WEATHER.

The voters of Lima can elect their school board without the advice, or aid of either Ginn & Co. or the American Book Company, or their representatives, and that is exactly what the voters are going to do, November 8th.

CARNAHAN IN TOWN.

We scanned the personal column
of the Ginn & Co. organ closely this morning for a news item, but in vain.
It did not tell the public that Mr.
Carnahan, state agent for Ginn & Co.,
was in the city yesterday in consultation with "Boss" Quail, and his object or that he looked them up good and hard because it looked to him like they were going to lose out in their scheme
to loot the parents of the city—because of the Times-Democrat's truthful disclosures.

It may be out of place to publish a
personal item in the editorial column,
but in this particular case, we believe
we are justified in doing so.

Mr. Carnahan, the above mentioned
Mr. Carnahan, was in Lima yesterday,
and he did just what is also stated
above and a few things more.

WILL BE BRANDED.

Republican ticket for member of the

lic knows the reason why the publi-

immediately brand himself as one

city, that they have weakened in a measure, but not enough to finally lose their game. If their ticket is elected.

Of the men they had originally selected for their school board tools, they have decided to retain four and drop three, and for two days Quail has scoured the city from the Solar refuery to the Lima Tankage Company's plant; from the Tile Roofing Co.'s
property to Freeman's Tile factory,
in an effort to induce three representative men to take a place under his domination, but the ill smelling odor
of his scheme had preceded him everywhere, and so far he has been unable to get good men to accept of his boss-like giving.

And they are right. No man who cares for his personal reputation will willingly stick his head into a game
that will ruin him in the minds of the public, knowing full well that if the Ginn & Co.-Quail-Campbell ticket goes through there will be such a scandal in this city as it never before heard of.

A GOOD THING.

The value of interurban lines to a
city can scarcely be overestimated.
Any one doubting this should watch
the cars coming into this city over the St. Wayne-Van Wert and Lima electric line. They are all crowded with people coming in and loaded down going out with the same people burdened with bundles. What it will be when the road is completed to Ft. Wayne, and the inhabitants of that suburb begin to come to Lima to trade, no man can tell. No stone should be left unturned to get more electric connections.

THE BOND STEAL.

Judge E. B. Dillon of the Common Pleas Court of Franklin county has prepared a written decision in passing upon the Crafts law, which he recently held to be unconstitutional in his court. This is the law passed by the late legislature providing that bonds of certain kinds amounting to more than $2,000 shall be furnished
exclusively by bonding or surety companies. The act, which has been previously alluded to in these columns,
surprisingly passed the Legislature
and was signed by the Governor, who was entirely familiar with its provisions. It was special legislation of the rankest kind, and how it was put through the Legislature is still a mystery, although there have been decided hints of underhanded methods
a connection with it.

Judge Dillon is a Republican, and his decision therefore is all the more interesting, in view of the feeling that he Crafts law has aroused in many counties in Ohio, in which it will have a bearing on the coming election. The grounds of the opinion declaring the act unconstitutional are in part that a proposed restriction in regard to criminal recognizances is forbidden
by the constitution itself; that in civil bonds the right of citizens to act in trust capacity cannot be questioned;
but it is special legislation inasmuch
as it denies to the person giving certain bonds the rights and opportunities accorded to other citizens giving certain other bonds, and that it involves a restraint and incumbrance
that is not for a common purpose or benefit, but for special favor.

The bonding companies secured this act at the hands of the late Republican legislature and it is not believed that they will allow the question of its constitutionality to go to the Supreme Court without a hard fight to protect the interests which the legislature so mysteriously promoted.
The law has created intense disaffection and is one of the numerous hinges for which the Seventy-sixth
general assembly is unable to apologize.

A NATION'S TRUE GLORY.

Hon. W. J. Bryan, in the Commoner
says:

"At this time, when the republicans seem disposed to measure a nation's greatness by the size of its army and
its navy, and its future by its wealth,
it will not be out of place to recall the words of Bishop Whipple, which present a higher national idea. The words are worth remembering." Bishop Whipple says:
"The true glory of a nation is an intelligent, honest, industrious Christian people. The civilization of a people depends on their individual characters; and the constitution which is not the outgrowth of this character is not worth the parchment on which it is written. You look in vain in the past
for a single instance where the people have preserved their liberties after their individual character was lost. It is not in the magnificence of its palaces, nor in the beautiful erec-tions of art lavished on its public ed-
ices, nor in costly libraries and gal-eries of pictures, nor in the number of wealth of its cities, that we find a nation's glory. The true glory of a nation is an intelligent, honest, industrious Christian people."

chapter may retain its faultless proportions long after the voice of patriotism is hushed within its walls; the monumental marble may commemorate a glory which has forever departed. Art and letters may bring no lessons to a people whose heart is dead. The true glory of a nation is the living temple of a loyal, industrious, upright people. The busy click of machinery, the merry ring of the anvil, the lowing of the peaceful herds and the song of the harvest home, are sweeter music than the paeans of departed glory, or the songs of triumph in war. The vine-clad cottage of the hillside, the cabin of the woodsman, and the rural home of the farmer are the true citadels of any country. There is a dignity in honest toil which belongs not to the display of wealth or the luxury of fashion. The man who drives the plow, or swings his axe in the forest, or with cunning fingers files the tools of his craft, is as truly the servant of his country as the statesman in the senate, or the soldier in battle. The safety of a nation depends not alone on the wisdom of its statesman, or the bravery of its generals. The tongue of the statesman never saved a nation tottering to its fall; the sword of a warrior never stayed its destruction. Would you see the image of true national glory, would you show villages where the crown and glory of the people are in common schools, where the voice of prayer goes heavenward, where the people have that most priceless gift, faith in God."

BUFF LEGHORNS.

How to Feed Them—Points from the Penitence of an Expert Breeder.

A successful Illinois breeder of Buff Leghorns says in American Agriculturalist: "I use oats, wheat, barley and corn—nothing but yellow corn, no white corn unless you want to spoil the color of the gill and give it a whitish cast. I select my male, the nearest to the standard, without white or black and good size. I then choose females of an even buff, as near the color of the cock as possible or a shade lighter. I use nothing but the best. If you have but one good one use that and turn the rest out. Twenty-five good chicks are worth 100 poor ones. I have succeeded during my seven years' breeding in getting some of the highest scoring Buff Leghorns in the country. They have combined vigor with the laying qualities. Some of my pullets were laying last season at the age of four months and two days. Good care and common sense never failed in obtaining first class stock."

The splendid Buff Leghorn cockerel illustrated has been exhibited at many fairs and scored 241½ points at the Northern Illinois Poultry association show.

THE SOIL FOR THE APPLE.

An Important Phase in Considering the Making of an Orchard.

That the soil is a very important point in the making of an orchard all authorities practically agree. From the old orchard, and especially the old trees of both Europe and America, the east and the west, the same lessons are learned. With one accord these trees, though separated by leagues of land and water, proclaim the creed of the apple tree: complete air and good drainage and a deep loamy soil.

Speaking upon this topic about 200 years ago, Miller, an English authority, said: "A gentle hazel loam, which is easy to work and does not retain the wet, is best. Although these trees will grow on very strong land they are seldom so thriving nor is the fruit so well favored as upon trees grown on a gentle soil. Dry or gravelly soils are wholly unfit for the apple tree."

Delaville, writing upon the subject of soils suitable to fruit culture in France, says: "A good soil for all fruit trees is composed of equal parts of sand, clay and lime."

Baillet, a popular French horticultural writer, in discussing the subject of soils desirable for the apple, remarks that "a wheat soil is the soil for the apple tree when grown as a standard."

The importance of thorough drainage in connection with a good soil is emphasized by the same author in these words: "The fruit of the apple is largest in the humid valleys, but best flavored on the hills and dry table lands, the excess of humidity, as the need of free air, inducing cancer and favoring the aphid."

Nanol in his treatise upon the cider apple thus speaks of the soil as bearing upon this fruit: "The apple is not very particular as to the nature of the soil. It neither dislikes very clayey, very limy nor very sandy soils, but the best flavored and longest keeping fruits come from trees grown on clay loam."

Dr. L. H. Bailey, speaking of apple growing in the eastern United States, says: "As a rule, rather light or loamy soils with deep and porous subsoils are best adapted to apple growing. Natural drainage is imperative. Apple trees are impatient of wet feet."

At a meeting of the Oregon State Horticultural society, held in Newberg in 1901, E. L. Smith made the following statement while speaking briefly of the apple: "Apples grown on sandy soil will weigh much less per bushel than those grown on clay or clayish soils, other conditions being equal. Apples to be long keepers must be grown on soil having some clay."

COTTON SEED.

The next crop of cotton is in the seed now maturing. Catch the best of these seeds as they pass. Select the seed according to a type clearly fixed in your own mind. Besides the value of cotton seed for seed it is worth about one-eighth of the crop of lint—estimated at present prices. The bale of seed cotton yielding 500 pounds lint, selling for $50, yields at the same time one-half ton of seed, selling for $6.25.

This is not the true value of the seed. This is only the fertilizing value of cotton seed. Its feeding value is far more, to say nothing of the valuable oil contained and now used so extensively.—Farm and Ranch.

SYNDICATE PARTNERS.

The new way of farming, the syndicate and the working of the soil are the subjects of the syndicate.

ambitious and enterprising young men which for want of a better name may be termed syndicate farming. This work may be done in two ways—first by capitalists investing in a tract of land and placing the management of it in charge of a competent educated agriculturist, he to conduct the farm operations on the same general plan as are mines, factories and railways; the other plan, and it has much to commend it, is to bunch a number of farms and their owners, the owners to retain title to both land and its products, but to be operated by one competent man, he determining what crops shall be grown and how they shall be cared for. This sort of co-operation under intelligent and skilled direction insures the best possible results in the matter of producing the crops and also secures special rates for all which members of such syndicate may have to buy, and this done without in any manner destroying the individual ownership of land or its products. Many a poorly paying farm might be made profitable under this method. Young men who fit themselves for this special work of superintendence are likely to be more and more in demand.

THE WAY OF THE WORLD.

It works about like this most of the time—when one man or one line of business is very prosperous some other man or line of business is quite apt to be catching it. When potatoes are worth $1.50 per bushel it is a good thing for the man who raises them, but hard on the man who has to buy them. When the salaried man can buy a barrel of good apples for $1.50 the man with the orchard is dodging the sheriff. The rule which makes one man's pasture green spoils his neighbor's hay, and when the wheat men are buying pianos and surreys and starting national banks the day laborer grunts at the price of flour. A period of hard times makes work and prosperity for lawyers, and a set of aching molars a paying job for the dentist; the undertaker thrives during epidemics and fatalities to human life, while the sickness and superstition of people make millions of the potent medicine men. The intensely cold winter builds up the fortune of the coal man, and when people are dying of sunstroke the seaman is enlarging his bank account, and so it goes, the misfortunes and dire needs of some insuring good times and prosperity for others.

CONFUSED TERMS.

Many people get confused on the nomenclature of our summer storms. The twister is usually called a cyclone when it is really a tornado, while the storm where the wind is of excessive velocity blowing in one direction is called a tornado, while it is a cyclone. The tornado proper is the storm demon which drops down funnel shaped from the clouds, usually moving from southwest to northeast, rotary in its lacerable force and very limited in its area of destruction; the cyclone proper is often a storm a thousand miles in diameter and, while rotary in its movement over this vast diameter, furnishes a wind velocity from a given direction of from 70 to 180 miles an hour. It is the cyclone which wrecks the West India islands, which overwhelms Galveston and which frequently sweeps up the Atlantic coast from the tropics. The press of the country is to blame for this confusion of terms. It almost invariably refers to the twister as a cyclone when it is really a tornado.

THE BORER'S WORK.

If you have an apple tree in the orchard which is overladen with small sized fruit and with foliage of an unhealthy color dig around the base of the trunk, and nine times out of ten you will find that the borer has ruined the tree. If a healthy looking tree is snipped off close to the ground during the wind of a summer storm you will also find that the borer has been at work. It is very common to lay the cause of death of our apple trees to sun scald, blight, extreme cold, and cause the climate when there is nothing the matter save the miserable borer. How to know he is there and how to get rid of him, just get down on all fours, put on your specs and scrape a little of the earth from the base of the trunk of the tree. The discolored bark and the sawdust excrement will locate the borer; then out with a sharp knife and dig him out. Better half girdle the tree than leave him there, for he will kill the tree before his three year term of existence in it has ended.

THE ANNUAL WORRY.

There are always every fall about thirty days of fret and worry all along the northern limit of the corn belt for fear the frost will come before the crop matures. Much of this worry might be avoided if corn growers in that territory would not overestimating their growing types of corn suited only to a more southern latitude. They come way cannot or will not understand that forty bushels of good sound corn of some early variety are worth much more than fifty bushels of soft, immature southern corn. For all of the territory north of latitude 42 the big ten foot dent corn should be banished and a six foot hundred day variety planted. A failure to recognize this fact costs millions of money nearly every year.

Remember that boys get tired soon of them men.

Have all the nibbles of the corn from now on. They will all come in play before snow flies.

Never dig potatoes when the ground is wet. It may try your patience to wait, but it is best to do it.

EXPERIENCE WITH WHEAT.

Conclusions from Field Tests in Ohio Covering Twelve Years.

The results of field tests covering twelve years' work upon the farm of the Ohio agricultural experiment station at Wooster show the twelve best yielding varieties to be, in the order named, Mealy, Gypsy, Improved Poole, Poole, Early Ripe, Nigger, Valley, Mediterranean, Perfection, Red Wonder, Nixon and New Monarch.

The average weight per measured bushel is a fair index of the pleanness and grade of wheat. The varieties standing highest in this regard are, in order, Red Wonder, Nixon, Improved Fulcraster, Fulcraster, Hickman, Gypsy, Diamond Gift, Mediterranean, Nigger, Deits, Valley, Bearded Monarch and Fultz, all red grained wheats.

The twelve testling lowest, beginning with the lowest, are Rural New Yorker No. 6, Forty Fold, Jones' Square Head, Early Arcadian, New Soules, Gold Coin, New Columbia, International No. 6, Stanley, Giant Square Head, Smith's Rust Proof and Mealy.

Ranking the above varieties as regards both yield and quality as shown by weight per bushel, giving sixty points to yield and forty points to weight, the ten standing highest, in the order of their merit, are Gypsy, Red Wonder, Early Ripe, Improved Poole, Nigger, Nixon, Poole, Valley, Mediterranean and Mealy.

Thick and Thin Seeding.

Eighteen different tests with five different varieties of wheat—the Valley, Rudy, Poole, Fultz and Mealy—extending over ten years' work, show a gradual increase from 14.35 bushels, grown from three pecks of seed, to an average of 21.98 bushels, from nine pecks of seed. In eight of the eighteen tests ten pecks gave a larger yield than a less amount of seed, and in only one test of the eighteen did six pecks give the largest yield.

Early and Late Seeding.

Seedings of wheat have been made at intervals of seven days from Sept. 1 to Oct. 27. The largest yields on the average have come from seedings made Sept. 22 and the next largest yields from Sept. 15. Two seasons when the Heslian 300 practically ruined wheat in Ohio, 1900 and 1903, Sept. 27 and Oct. 5 gave the best yields.

Old Versus New Seed.

Germination tests of wheat one to six years old show that wheat one year old will germinate as well as new wheat and that even two-year-old wheat, if of good quality, would better be used than inferior seed whose only virtue is that it is new.

This Season's Late Harvest.

The extremely late harvest this year has been favorable to rust, and wheat is of low grade as well as of light yield. Large yields and high weight per measured bushel have usually been associated.

The Borer in Wheat.

Wheat has advanced over 30 cents a bushel since the upward movement began last June. Disappointment in the winter crop and later threatened and actual disaster to the spring crop have been the main levers that have lifted prices above $1.10 per bushel. As to the spring crop, not enough is definitely known at this writing to allow an estimate that will be worth anything. Many reports indicate that there will be no wheat over a large section of the northwest. Authorities estimate the shortage at 20 to 25 percent. Certain it is that the people of the northwest have been buying wheat for speculation very liberally, evidently believing that it will be good property by the time another harvest is here. Even if the conservative estimates of the damage are correct this country will have little wheat to export. And it will probably need little. The foreign buyer is a long looker at the price, and with wheat at $1.10 in Chicago he will buy no more than he has to have. The price will cut a big figure this year in the sufficiency or lack of supplies, as it will restrict exports and probably home consumption too.—National Stockman.

Antennae in the Orchard.

Use paris green or lead arsenate whenever the fall caterpillars and the tent caterpillars show themselves. For very large trees use sticky bands around the stems to prevent the caterpillars crawling up.

Destroy the fall webworms as soon as seen and, if necessary, spray with one of the arsenical poisons.

In case of maggots destroy all infested apples by pasturing hogs or sheep in the orchards. Let chickens have the run of the orchard and they will pick up a large number of the pupae.

Carry apples out of the orchard as soon as picked, and avoid, if possible, storing them where flies from maggots in them can get back into the orchard the following spring.

Dig out the borers or kill by inserting a flexible wire into their burrows.

Notes From the Farm Journal.

Diligence is the mother of good luck. September sun should never shine on hops.

There's lots of cheap pork in green sugar corn fodder.

Try sowing some clover with the timothy this fall.

Sick headache is caused by a disordered condition of the stomach and in early stages of the disease it is caused by the stimulation of the stomach and the brain.

ITCHING ECZEMA.

In July, 1883, I began to break out with eczema on my head, legs and arms, and began treatment with local doctors, but did not get much relief. They said the disease had become chronic. I then quit them and used various ointments and soaps for another two years, but as soon as cold weather came I was as bad off as ever. I finally decided to let medicine alone, and for twelve or thirteen years did nothing towards curing the Eczema, except bathing. This seemed to do about as much good as anything I had tried.

During the time I lost about one-half of my hair. I began S. S. S. doubtful of a cure, because the disease had run so long, but soon discovered your medicine was doing me good, and continued to take it. I used seven bottles, when I was completely cured, not having a single spot on my body, which before was almost completely covered.

The head, feet and hands are usually the parts affected, though the disease appears on other parts of the body. While external applications allay the itching and burning temporarily, it is the acids thrown off by the blood that cause the irritation and eruptions upon the skin. The acids must be neutralized and the system cleansed of all humors and poisons before the cure is permanent.

S. S. S. is guaranteed entirely free of Potash, Arsenic and other minerals. Book on the skin and its diseases sent free. Medical advice furnished free.

A DOZEN TIMES A NIGHT.

"I have had kidney and bladder trouble for years, and it became so bad that I was obliged to get up at least a dozen times a night," says Mr. Owen Dunn, of Benton Ferry, W. Va. "I never received any permanent benefit from any medicine until I took Foley's Kidney Cure. After using two bottles, I am cured." Sold by H. F. Vorkamp, corner Main and North streets.

HIS FEARS WERE REALIZED.

A Georgia statesman says that while he was in the shop of an optician in Atlanta, he once heard an amusing conversation between the proprietor of the establishment and an aged dandy, who was just leaving the place with a pair of new spectacles.

As the old chap neared the door his eye lighted upon a most extraordinary looking instrument conspicuously placed upon a counter. The venerable negro paused for several moments to gaze in open mouthed wonder at this thing, the like of which he had never seen before. After a long struggle with his curiosity, he was vanquished. Turning to the optician, he asked:

"What is it, boss?"

"That is an ophthalmometer," replied the optician in his gravest manner.

"Shot!" muttered the old man, to himself as he backed out of the door, his eyes still fastened upon the curious looking thing on the counter. "Shot, dat's what I was afraid it was!"—Youth's Companion.

Insomnia and Indigestion Cured.

"Last year I had a very severe attack of indigestion. I could not sleep at night and suffered most excruciating pains for three hours after each meal. I was troubled this way for about three months when I used Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, and received immediate relief," says John Dixon, Tillamook, Ontario, Canada. KNEW HIS MOTHER TONGUE.

Several years ago, W. Bourke Cockran found himself in need of a new office boy. The lawyer's secretary was left to make a selection from the horde of applicants. His choice was a bright young lad of fourteen or fifteen, who was sent in to have an interview with Cockran.

After a number of questions, which the boy answered successfully, the lawyer inquired: "Are you well acquainted with your mother tongue?"

"Yes, sir," the lad replied, "cause my mudder jaws me most every night."—Louisville Times.

One of the large railway lines of the west will not use cedar ties for the reason that they are too soft to stand the terrific impact of the modern locomotive.

Speculating on the board of trade, betting on the races and whisky are the trinity of traps which are said to catch 90 per cent of the defaulters of the country.

We are running the cider mill these early September days, and the juice of the Wealthy apple makes a drink fit for the gods; it also makes the finest of vinegar.

Two things, very similarly named, are looming up as most important factors connected with the agriculture of the southwestern portion of the country. They are alfalfa and the catnip.

It was a very pretty sight and a very unusual one—a large field of grain recently cut and the shocks set with mathematical accuracy both ways in straight lines. This field was a fit subject for a camera. This in Nebraska.

A common idea prevails that a light frost which will pinch the leaves of the corn is a good thing for it in hastening its maturity. We think this is all wrong and that the ear is never so well developed as when it ripens untouched by frost.

A tramp was recently killed while riding the blind baggage, and when the coroner sat on him it was found that he had $500 sewed in the lining of his old coat. He was, in spite of this, beating his way from Texas to North Dakota. Queer types are these hoboes.

Either the humming bird is short on bird sense or else the flowers—canas, salvia, asters and the like—furnish a continuous supply of nectar, for we watched one of these little fellows visit the same Anna blossom twenty times within the short space of fifteen minutes.

The Elberta peach made a great record in the west this year. Beginning down in Texas in June, it kept making its way north through Arkansas and then Missouri, winding up with splendid fruit from the latter state up to September. This peach will have to be classed hereafter as a standard southern product, as much so as cotton.

Good sense has returned to the grain growers this year, and more of them have put their grain into the stack than for many years. The grain was thus safely secured, the plows were started on the stubble in August, the straw will be worth twice as much when thrashed late in the fall, and the grain will be brighter in color and better in quality.

We met a fruit man recently who lives in southwestern Nebraska. He was engaged in harvesting the fruit from 100 acres of peaches, from which orchard he had sold 12,000 bushels at a net profit to him of $12,000. This beats corn, hogs and alfalfa. He is located forty miles west of Omaha and has raised peaches successfully for seventeen years.

A scientific friend of ours claims that grain fields—wheat and oats—are less liable to be smitten with rust when the prairie winds have a free sweep over them than they are when protected from the winds by belts of timber. The rust, which has almost ruined the wheat crop of the Dakotas this year, would seem to have done its work in spite of the winds.

A dairyman friend has tried this plan with his cows during the dry and heated term of August and early September. He brings his cows in from the pasture at 10 o'clock, puts them in the basement barn and darkens it and then gives them whatilage they will eat, varying this with a feed of sweet corn. The cows are turned out again toward evening. His milk check keeps a June pace.

It is pitiful to read of the injury sustained by the great wheat crop of the northwest section this year, magnificent oceans of wheat, promising twenty-five bushels an acre, in three days smitten with a rust which silently fell on them as did the plagues in the time of Pharaoh, and the life taken out of the unfortunate wheat grower who suffers, but every man who eats bread.

A matter of $2 a month in wages is a very small thing in the pay of the hired man on the farm if he is the right sort of a hand. The careful, thoughtful hand may easily save his employer ten times this amount in the care of machinery and stock. There is not enough difference made in the wages of farm hands—the scads, the lazy, the shiftless, the careless, getting always too much and the best men not enough.

The automobile fellows are very anxious that the farmers should improve the roads and make nice smooth tracks for the devil machines. The farmer thinks, and not without reason, that when he has made this sort of roads there will be no safety either for him or his stock with the crazy chauffeurs making thirty miles an hour over them. The farmer will never take kindly to the automobiles until their owners have more regard for the lives and the rights of other people.

Miss Nettie Blackmore, Minneapolis, tells how any young woman may be permanently cured of monthly pains by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"YOUNG WOMEN:—I had frequent headaches of a severe nature, dark spots before my eyes, and at my menstrual periods I suffered untold agony. A member of the lodge advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, but I only scorned good advice and felt that my case was hopeless, but she kept at me until I bought a bottle and started taking it. I soon had the best reason in the world to change my opinion of the medicine, as each day my health improved, and finally I was entirely without pain at my menstruation periods. I am most grateful."—NETTIE BLACKMORE, 28 Central Ave., Minneapolis, Minn.

Painful Periods

are quickly and permanently overcome by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. The above letter is only one of hundreds of thousands which prove this statement to be a fact. Menstruation is a severe strain on a woman's vitality, and if it is painful something is wrong. Don't take narcotics to deaden the pain, but remove the cause—perhaps it is caused by irregularity or womb displacements, or the development of a tumor. Whatever it is, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is guaranteed to cure it. If there is anything about your case about which you would like special advice, write freely to Mrs. Pinkham. She will treat your letter as strictly confidential. She can surely help you, for no person in America can speak from a wider experience in treating female ills. She has helped hundreds of thousands of women back to health. Her address is Lynn, Mass., and her advice is free. You are very foolish if you do not accept her kind invitation.

Details of Another Case.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Ignorance and carelessness is the cause of most of the sufferings of women. I believe that if we properly understood the laws of health we would all be well, but if the sick women only knew the truth about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, they would be saved much suffering and would soon be cured."

"I used it for five months for a local difficulty which had troubled me for years, and for which I had spent hundreds of dollars in the vain endeavor to rectify. My life forces were being sapped, and I was daily losing my vitality."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound cured me completely, and only too pleased to endorse such a great remedy."—MISS JENNIE L. EDWARDS, 604 H St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Pinkham, whose address is Lynn, Mass., will answer cheerfully and without cost all letters addressed to her by sick women.

MAN

With Many Aliases Caught.

He Is Wanted

On Several Charges of Embezzlement

Since Last June All Indictments Against Him Have Been Kept Subrosa

Officers and Detectives Have Been After the Man in West and Elsewhere—Arrest Finally Made At Mansfield.

Mansfield, O., Oct. 14.—George W. Spoolman, with numerous aliases, was finally arrested here last night through the unremitting efforts of C. B. Gould, representing the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Co., of Baltimore, at Cleveland. It is believed that Spoolman's embezzlements and forgeries will aggregate $20,000 or more. He is wanted for embezzlement from the W. & L. E. railroad at Booth, Ohio, and on similar charges by the American Express Co. at Millford Center, Ohio, and the B. & O. railroad at Willow, Ohio. Spoolman was arrested here last night about midnight and will be held for the arrival of the Cleveland officers.

On June 15th last, Spoolman was indicted at Cleveland on three counts for embezzlement, and one for forgery under the name of Ransome Earl Regan, but the indictments were kept subrosa for the reason that the man was not under arrest. Officers from detective agencies have been after the man in the west and elsewhere under various names under which he sailed about the country until Thursday night, when C. B. Gould who has trailed him repeated to Toledo, Detroit, Mansfield, Cleveland and other cities, came here and run him to earth with the help of the local police department and placed him in jail.

THE STAGE.

The frank avowal of the author of Broadhurst & Currie's well-known and successful farcical melange, "Rudolph and Adolph," which will be seen at the Faunt opera house tonight, that it is not an attempt to elevate the stage, but merely an effort to drive away the blues" does much to prepare the mind of the local theatre-goer. The blues are a common nuisance, and whether at election time or on other occasions, the ones who do drive them away are deserving of the highest public approval. "Rudolph and Adolph" have continued in their quaint humorous and delightful way to do this for several seasons and hence are old favorites in the amusement field. The play is simple in plot and unfolding.

NOTICE.

Special Meeting of Mart Armstrong Post, No. 202.

There will be a day meeting of the Post Saturday afternoon, October 15, commencing at 1:30 for the express purpose of mustering or reinstating all who may present themselves at that time. This step is taken for the accommodation of those who live at a distance from the city. Now comrades, let there be a touch of elbows throughout Allen county, and a grand rally of the old veterans, around old Glory. The commander-in-chief and the department commanders have ordered a move all along the line from the Atlantic to the Pacific, from the lakes to the gulf. In the memory of your departed comrades, their widows and orphans unite with us to preserve and strengthen those kind and fraternal feelings, which bind together the soldiers, sailors and marines, who went forth in their young manhood to preserve our country undivided and maintain our flag unsullied. Bring your discharge or pension certificate, and remember the date. By order of the Post.

THE GLEAN.

William Allen White, of Emporia, Kansas, has written a salty article on "Gadding Girls," in which he says that there are scores of girls in that city between thirteen and seventeen years old who parade the streets and swarm in the postoffice, uttering, giggling and flirting, whom their mothers ought to take home and spank good and red. They are so everlasting boy struck that they can not sit still, and the town is full of human pups, ready to meet their advances and speed them on their high road to ruin. Their mothers think they are too good and pure to be in any danger, but they are made of the same kind of mud that we are, have no experience in the world's wickedness, and when they go to the devil, the mothers are appalled and think they must take after their father. One can not help feeling sorry for the social condition at Emporia, nor refrain from contrasting it with Sidney, where there are no giggling, wriggling "gadding girls" matching four abreast, and no "human pups" to catch on to their significant oglings. They are, he says, invariably over dressed, and vain display of their gew-gaws seems to be uppermost in their minds. Now, to be serious, is there not much truth in the caustic strictures of the writer, and is it not true that fond mothers make a grievous mistake in tricking out their little girls so elaborately and fantastically and parading them on all occasions? Vanity is of quick growth in the virgin soil of childhood, and even "Children's Day" in the churches means hardly naught else to the little ones than a chance to make a vain display. The sweet, retiring, modest and bashful innocence of youth which every one admires is taking its place among the "lost arts" and brazen boldness, even sauciness, are taking the place, not only with the girls, but the boys also. Their conduct at parties, public gatherings, concerts and exhibitions, now tolerated under the plea of the exuberance of youthful spirit and irrepressible sprightliness, would not have been allowed a generation since, and ought not to be now; yet, in spite of our schools and churches, the hoodlum spirit is rapidly growing, and rebellion against any wholesome restraint is getting to be the rule of the youth of our land. There is something wrong somewhere. Can any one tell where it is?

Many Distinguished Foreigners Who Were Delegates to the International Peace Conference.

Philadelphia, Oct. 14.—Many distinguished foreigners who were delegates to the thirteenth International Peace conference at Boston are the guests of this city. The reception committee composed of prominent Philadelphians met the delegates at the Pennsylvania railway station. The party was divided into two groups, one remaining here and the other taking a special train to Swarthmore College, where a formal reception was tendered by the faculty and students.

Camden, N. J., Oct. 14.—The national arbitration of local preachers of the Methodist Episcopal church in America began its annual session here today. Rev. C. Bestenue, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., in the chair. Among the important matters to be considered by the convention is the annual report of Taylor university, of Upland, Ind. There is some rivalry over the election of a president of the institution for the coming year. The incumbent, Rev. C. H. Stemen and Rev. Jno. R. Wright, of Washington, D. C., have alternated in the presidency for the past decade, and both are said to be candidates for the office this year.

DEATH LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES ARE VERY HEAVY.

BATTLE OF LIAO YANG

Pales Into Insignificance When Compared With That Raging.

Marshal Oyama Sends Word

That Japanese Are Making Satisfactory Progress All Along Front of Conflict.--Kurapatkin Officially Affirms the Loss of Large Number of His Guns.

MUKDEN, OCT. 14.—AT 3:30 P. M. THIS AFTERNOON THE FIGHT IS STILL IN PROGRESS WITH TERRIBLE BITTERNESS AND THE RESULT YET HANGS IN THE BALANCE. THE LOSSES ON BOTH SIDES ARE ENORMOUS. THE RUSSIANS HAVE FIFTEEN THOUSAND AND WOUNDED, HUNDREDS OF WHOM ARE STREAMING BACK FROM ALL DIRECTIONS.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—11:15 a. m.—An official telegram from the front states that the Japanese captured sixteen guns on the right flank of the Russian troops. Wednesday night, though most of these were re-captured. The Japanese subsequently captured several other guns. The number taken, however, is not stated.

London, Oct. 14.—Advices received at the Japanese legation say that the report of Marquis Oyama giving details of the operations below Mukden on Tuesday and Wednesday, which were previously described in the Associated Press despatches from Tokio, seems to make the total of Russian guns captured 38, and ammunition wagons 24. General Oku's army was credited with having taken 23 guns.

The report regarding General Nodzu's capture is not quite clear. It says he took "two field guns and eight ammunition wagons on height a few miles east of Yentai and while pursuing the enemy captured also field guns with ammunition wagons numbering eleven at Sankashih mountain, besides 150 prisoners." The Japanese legation is not sure whether this means eleven guns and eleven wagons or whether the guns and wagons together total eleven.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—1:05 p. m. It is now 7 o'clock at night on the battle ground below Mukden, and the fate of General Kurapatkin's forward movement and possibly the fate of his whole army may already have been decided, but no word has yet come regarding the issue. Naturally the city is filled with countless rumors of defeat and victory. The public has been aroused to the highest pitch of excitement and anxiety by Kurapatkin's despatch of last night revealing the terrific character of the combat yesterday, and acquiescing the people officially that he was on the defensive. That together with the Tokio despatches declaring that the Japanese forces were everywhere gaining ground, and Kurapatkin's concluding statement that he would "give orders tomorrow to obstinately defend the positions occupied by us" have killed the enthusiasm with which the news of the Russian advance was hailed and instead has raised ominous fears of impending disaster. The holiday crowds engaged in celebrating the festival of the "Intercession of the Virgin for Humanity" on which occasion they usually spend their time in merry-making, are now waiting for the news of the issue of the most critical day.

It is fully appreciated that if Kurapatkin's army was driven back today, the whole plan of the Russian advance may have been wrecked and that if Field Marshal Oyama is able to follow up the Russian energetically, the battle may end in irretrievable ruin for Kurapatkin. On the other hand, if Oyama, having himself met the Russian advance by assuming the offensive and throwing the weights of his armies upon the Russian lines today, exhausted the energy of his troops and failed to break his opponent's line, a repulse necessarily must weaken his resisting power when he falls back on the fortified positions of his triangle.

Preparing Hospitals. London, Oct. 14.—A despatch to a news agency from Harbin today says that the hospitals there are preparing for the reception of 37 officers and 1,200 men, wounded during the recent fighting before Yentai and who are now on their way to Harbin by train.

Short on Rail. Tsingtau, Oct. 14.—The correspondent of the Associated Press, learns from the most reliable authority, that a high Russian officer who passed through Tsingtau on his way to Shanghai, is making fabulous offers to ship-pers to take cargoes to Port Arthur and this officer has admitted that the supplies there are alarmingly low, especially those of coal.

The German steamer Emma which cleared from here yesterday for San Francisco with a cargo of coal, will attempt to reach Port Arthur. The foreign crew of the Emma has been replaced by Chinamen. Many of the crew deserted on learning the destination of the ship. It is said that Russians paid the owners of the Emma $15 per ton besides depositing the appraised value of the vessel, with a bonus of twenty-five per cent. in bank, before the cargo was loaded, and that the captain, should he successfully run the blockade, is to be awarded a prize of $15,000.

A despatch from Tsingtau October 7, said that the British steamer Howeyk was discharging a cargo of coal to the German steamer Emma and that the latter was expected to make an attempt to reach Port Arthur within a few days from the time the despatch was sent.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—3:35 p. m.—General Kurapatkin's official report given out at 1:30 p. m., definitely confirming the loss of artillery attached to the brigade on his right, as the result of General Oku's attack on Wednesday night, served to increase public apprehension. The number of guns lost is not specifically stated. Each division is composed of two brigades with a brigade of artillery of thirty guns. It seems that the Russians lost twenty-four guns, which would correspond with the Tokio report.

Discredits Report. St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—The admiralty says it has no information in regard to the report from St. Petersburg by way of Paris of the appearance of five Japanese cruisers off Vladivostok and discredits it.

The Workers: "Well, if you think you can fill my empty 'full dinner pail' with that sort o' taffy, you are mistaken, Senator."

St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—Another despatch from General Kurapatkin, dated early this morning says regarding the fighting of October 12th, and 13th that the Russians on the right wing defended their advanced positions and also portions of the different main positions, particularly in the direction of Sialihedzy, until towards evening, when Kurapatkin ordered them to withdraw a short distance. In spite of the fact that the Japanese attacks were chiefly directed against these troops they held the ground to which they retired. On the left wing, after a very obstinate struggle, the Russians occupied the rocky hills, south of Bentasiapute and near Bentah, about eight miles north of Yentai, but the arrival of large Japanese reinforcements prevented them from profiting by this success and as this body was separated from the rest of the troops, Kurapatkin ordered them to retire.

The Russians suffered heavy losses but no details have yet been given out.

Washington, Oct. 14.—The Japanese legation today received the following cablegram from Tokio:

"Marshall Oyama sends the following report of the engagement of Wednesday and Thursday: 'In the direction of Benshiu the enemy made repeated counter attacks on Wednesday, but were repulsed. The enemy showed a sign of retreat towards the evening and our forces assumed the offensive since daybreak of Thursday. There flanking movement of our strong force of cavalry on the Kanien largely contributed to the favorable development of the situation in that quarter. The central and left columns of the right army both occupied important eminences, continuing attacks. Operations of the central army are progressing favorably, dislodging the enemy there from several strategic positions. Our reinforcements are arriving continually at Yentai.'

Tokio, Oct. 14.—2 p. m.—The first partial casualty list of the battle progressing south of Mukden, was received today. Part of the central column of the left army lost, on Wednesday, one officer killed and six wounded and had about 300 men killed or wounded.

Tokio, Oct. 14.—It is officially announced that twenty-seven officers were killed and that 133 were wounded during the operations against Port Arthur from June 20th to July 31st.

SOUTH WANTS MEN OF BRAIN AND BRAWN.

Value of Cotton Crop Reaches Enormous Figures of $419,358,366, and the Supply Is Not Equal to Demand.

Baton Rouge, La., Oct. 14.—The Cotton States Association Commission of Agriculture composed of commissioners from Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Indian Territory, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, North Carolina, South Carolina, Tennessee, Texas and Virginia, in convention today, listened to the address of President R. R. Poole, of Alabama. The commissioner estimate of this year's cotton crop is awaited with much interest. President Poole said:

The value of the product which we have come to talk about today and devise ways and means to extend and promote its planting and cultivation, with a yield of ten million and a half bales, reaches the enormous sum of $424,463,659; besides the sea island crop of 78,538 bales, representing $5,351,707; the immense and astounding total of $419,358,366.

Mr. Poole then told of the demand for cotton, saying the supply is not equal to the demand. He said: "The planter is now independent at least, and he can make cotton the money crop, and after raising all provision crops for home consumption and to spare, he can make as much cotton as he chooses and hold it for fair and just prices."

Mr. Poole closed his address with the plea for new men with brain and brawn to settle in the south.

one Vannovsky, who temporarily assumed command of the brigade, they after a desperate assault regained possession of the guns with the exception of sixteen which remained in the hands of the Japanese. The final issue of the battle Wednesday on this flank was unsuccessful for us. On account of a night attack of the Japanese, who executed a turning movement, our troops were forced not only to abandon their positions but again lost the guns previously recovered from the Japanese. Our forces retired to the position previously prepared on the Shakhe river."

AMERICAN MINISTER AT SAN DOMINGO CABLES THAT MINISTER OF FINANCE WOULD PAY AWARD OF ARBITRATORS.

Washington, Oct. 14.—Mr. Dawson, American minister at San Domingo, cabled the state department today that the minister of finance had agreed to pay the award of the arbitrators in the case of the San Domingo improvement company amounting to four and one half million dollars. This award was rendered last July but the Dominican government gave notice a week ago that it would refuse to pay the award. It has now reconsidered this decision.

Divorce Question Bobs Up Daily In Episcopal Convocation.

By Small Majority It Was

Voted, This Afternoon, To Report the Amendment Forbidding Re-marriage of Any Divorced Person. It Was Decided Independent to Change Name of Church.

Boston, Oct. 14.—The divorce question again was to come before the house of deputies of the Episcopal general convention today. At meetings of the woman's auxiliary of the board of missions, Bishops Brook, of Oklahoma and Indian Territory; Graves, of Shanghai, China, and Rowe, of Alaska, were scheduled to make addresses. The committee of the state church reported to the house of deputies that it had been unable to define the terms "Communicant" as requested by the diocese of Albany. Upon the recommendation of the committee a special committee was appointed to report to the next convention on the subject.

A proposition bearing on changing the name of the church came before the house when the committee on prayer books reported that it considered it inexpedient to strike the word "Protestant Episcopal" from the title page of the prayer book in view of the fact that the joint commission appointed three years to consider a second name for the church had reported in favor of making no change at this time. The committee's report was on a resolution to strike the two words from the prayer book, introduced by Rev. D. Talbot Rogers, of Fond Du Lac, Wis. Mr. Rogers moved that his resolution be placed on the calendar. This action was ordered and the matter will be discussed later.

Rev. Dr. Relse, also of Brooklyn, in presenting the report of a special committee to consider requests for the use of the revised version of the Bible in churches recommended the use of the West Minister Bible at morning and evening prayer. The report will be discussed later.

A resolution was adopted appointing a committee consisting of two bishops, two clergy and two lay delegates for the purpose of petitioning state legislatures in the interest of reforming the divorce laws. The resolution is subject to concurrence by the house of bishops.

The house after voting by 233 to 110 to order a vote by the committee of the whole at not later than noon today on the canon amendment forbidding clergymen to marry any divorced person, went into committee of the whole to further consider that question.

In accordance with motion passed yesterday the first division was upon the question of reporting as a committee of the whole, the amendment forbidding of reporting as a committee of the whole, the amendment forbidding the re-marriage of any divorced person.

It was voted 243 to 211 to report the amendment. The division furnished the first test vote on the divorce issue at the present convention. An amendment referring to bishops the request of a divorced person for permission to receive the sacraments also will be reported to the house, the vote to do so standing 280 to 126. The amendment makes an exception in the case of an innocent person in a divorce for the cause of adultery.

The house as a committee of the whole, dissolved and resumed its sessions.

Three months later the first wife received information that Lane was not dead. To the police the prisoner denied he was Lane and gave his name as Donald Koyne.

Appeal to Traveling Men to Fight Trusts

And the Political Party Which

Through Bad Laws and Administration's Attitude Makes Them Stronger.

Secretary of National Committee of Commercial Travelers Asks the Salesmen to Vote For Parker and Davis.

There are billions of dollars' worth of merchandise sold annually to the people of the United States by commercial travelers and indoor salesmen. In doing this they perhaps talk to six millions of people every day, to many of whom they tell the cruel, determined and demoralizing effects of the trusts. Mr. Roosevelt is trying his best as a matter of political expediency to cultivate these salesmen. But this year they naturally feel like the rabbit when he is being lubricated by the snake in order that he may be more easily swallowed. These men are just as necessary to the manufacturer or merchant as their engines, or the stores or factories in which he carries on his business, and yet Mr. Roosevelt and the trusts advocate the practical extermination of the commercial traveler as one of the great economies of modern business combination. They say we must be turned aside, discharged and sacrificed to progress. God save us from such progress that throws men upon the street, pouring the money thus gained into the coffers of men already too rich, and causing a grievous loss, giving back nothing to the community but a grievous, terrible and cruel loss not only to the traveling men but to those who depend upon them.

The trusts are widening the gap between the rich and the poor, and wealth is every year falling into fewer hands, and the republican party have in his election, and we trust to get your cooperation in distributing the campaign documents which we shall send you.

It is most important to secure the names and addresses of as many democratic commercial travelers and business men as possible, and in order that these may be obtained in the least possible time, recourse is had to the endless chain system. In the endless chain for charity, the weak link is that somebody breaks the chain who does not care to give his money. In this movement the weak link is eliminated because there is no initiation fee, and only those commercial travelers and business men who are fraternally interested in helping along the anti-trust movement are asked to join. As no printed form of application will be used, you are requested to write the secretary at once on receipt of this, by which you will perform an important service to the party. Please write your name and address plainly, adding any sentiment in favor of Parker and Davis you feel like expressing; also please send the enclosed five copies of this communication to five commercial travelers or business men, who are opposed to trusts and who are democratic and suggesting that they write to me. The committee is ready to supply these people with special literature direct from headquarters, and we depend upon you to render us this service.

Your prompt and immediate attention to this matter will be fully appreciated by the committee.

WILLIAM HOPE,
Secretary, National Committee of Commercial Travelers and Business Men.

LATE

Dispatch From Gen. Sahharoff

This Morning

Explains the Operations of Yesterday.

High Officer Says the Situation Is Critical, But It Is Not Desperate.

Slaughter Was Frightful. No Estimate of Losses Is Yet Possible, But They Run Far Into the Thousands.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 14.—5:20 p. m.—A late despatch from General Sahharoff, sent at six o'clock this morning explains more operations of October 12 and 13, from which it appears that the Russian center was due north of the Yentai mines, the right running west a short distance beyond the railroad and the left sweeping southeastward to Boushu. The real bloody work did not begin until Wednesday when the Japanese made a series of determined attacks on Shalimuday, about seven miles north of Yentai, but the Russians held off their assailants.

In the meantime, however, the extreme right, comparatively lightly held, was forced back, thus compelling Kuropatkin to slightly draw back his line above Yentai in order to preserve its alignment. On the extreme left, after a determined resistance, the Russians succeeded in carrying the Rocky heights and Hua Pass, north of Boushu, but the arrival of Japanese reinforcements, Kuropatkin says, made it impossible for the Russians to press their advantage here and as the left was now too far advanced it also was withdrawn some distance. Reports from the left, however, only bring the situation up to yesterday afternoon. A high officer of the general staff tells the Associated Press that the situation while critical is not desperate. Kuropatkin, he says, has his head and action by his will in the hope that the slaughter of the run far into the thousands.

The losses were especially heavy on the Russian left and center. The Russian left and center. The Russian left and center.

DAVIS IS THE STAR.

He Is Asking His Audiences a Few Pertinent Questions

About the Republican Cry of

"A Full Dinner Pail," of Four Years Ago, and About Which They Are Silent in This Campaign Because It Is no Longer Full.

New Martinsville, W. Va., Oct. 14.—A day in the Ohio Valley touching the towns on the West Virginia bank of the river from Wheeling to Parkersburg, is the programme of Henry G. Davis and his corps of campaigners today. Meetings of an hour and a half duration each, at this place and Sistersville were the features of the day's itinerary, which is to be concluded with a rally at Parkersburg, where the special train will be side-tracked for the night.

At Benwood, the first stop this morning, the Davis special found great favor. A old smooth bore cannon had been unlimbered alongside the track and as the train was coming to a stop was fired.

Windows of the forward coach of the train and one in a special went in with a crash. No one was injured, however, and the meeting proceeded at once.

Mr. Davis is asking his audiences a few questions about the republican "Full dinner pail" of four years ago. "You don't hear them saying a word about that pail now do you?" he asks. "No! No! The pail is not full and they are keeping quiet."

Postmasters have received word from the postoffice department advising them to warn the merchants to be on the watch for a colored man who has been disposing of raised money orders. The fellow has been working his scheme in Kentucky quite successfully recently and it is believed that he is headed in this direction. He buys several small orders for 50 or 40 cents each and raises them to $20 or $10 and then calls upon shoe or clothing merchants and makes a small purchase, presenting a money order in payment, receiving the difference in cash.

GET HIS HAIR BACK.

Who formerly had when he married to the hairdresser's shop. Frederick Marshall, Maryland black, hairdresser, bought a bottle of Newbro's Hairdressing. The hair fell out in his early years and he had to have it put on his head. On July 2nd he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Hairdressing works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. WHITE

Star Team Is Organized

And Will Play

Basket Ball at the Auditorium.

Strong Line-up of the Fastest Players of the Great Indoor Game.

Season May Be Opened Next Friday Evening With a Game Against the Ada University Squad.

Lima will have a representative basket ball team in the field this season to be known as the "White Stars." An organization was perfected last night which includes four members of last year's last high school team, Wymiller, Shaw, Griffith and Miller. The team will be coached by the former of Earl Bressler, one of the strongest guards that ever covered a floor in a basket ball game. Bressler has been out of training for a year or two but a few weeks of the ball is all he needs to get the motion and put his eye and muscle in perfect condition. The team will carry several substitutes who will be taken on later and expects to be in condition to accept a challenge from any representative team in the state.

The colors adopted were purple and white. Uniforms will consist of a purple jersey shirt bearing a large white star on the front which gives the team its name. White running pants and purple stockings with white bands will complete the costume.

The team will be under new management and early arrangements will be made for games that will offer a good schedule bringing some of the strongest aggregations from such cities as Toledo, Dayton, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Findlay, Fremont, Piquette, Marion and the various colleges. Ada had a rattling good team to represent the university last year and although having the advantage in size and weight the Lima five expect their fitness and science to be more than a match for the sturdy collegians.

The schedule will be arranged to offer at least one game a week and Prof. Bressler will offer the additional attraction of a dance at the conclusion of the contest.

The operation which was performed, was expected only to relieve his suffering and there is no expectation that he will long survive. Barbour was formerly pastor of the First Baptist church here.

COMPLETELY DISAPPEARED

Man Charged With Murder Eludes Sheriff and His Big Pursuing Posse.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Oct. 14.—A special to the Evening Press from Grand Junction says that Edward Donohue, whom three sheriffs have been hunting, has been completely disappeared. The officers believed last night that they had surrounded their man in a small piece of woods between Kalamazoo and Grand Junction. They did not risk an attempt to capture in the dark, as it is known that Donohue is heavily armed and desperate. The officers closed in today only to find that Donohue had completely disappeared.

WOULD BE HAPPY IF HE SHOULD DIE

The Night After Election and Could Feel That He Had Contributed Anything To Drive Doctrine of Imperialism.

Fort Wayne, Ind., Oct. 14.—Wm J. Bryan and party left here today for Auburn, where the first meeting of the third speaking tour of the state was held. There was a large crowd not-withstanding the early hour. Other addresses today were made at Decatur, Portland, Muncie, Alexandria, Ellettsburg, and Anderson, New Castle, Richmond and Cambridge City.

The meeting of the silver democrats he said: "If Judge Parker wins a victory it will be a victory for my ideals as well as his and if I should die on the night after the election and could feel that I, in a small part had contributed to drive out of this country the famous doctrine of imperialism I would feel that I had not lived in vain."

Mr. Bryan said before closing: "I am so democratic that I would like to see post masters elected by the people. I am tired seeing the federal government come into a town and appoint as postmaster a man who the people do not want. I am tired seeing federal patronage given to build up political machine. I did not expect to win at St. Louis. I knew before I got there that the majority of the convention was not with me but I felt under obligations to the millions of men who had voted for me to go there and do the best I could and I went there and fought from the time I got there until I went away.

Decatur furnished another large crowd for Mr. Bryan. The town was profusely decorated.

Referring to labor, he said: "I charge that the republican party is raising the army in order that the trusts having robbed this country of hundreds of millions of dollars may now use the army paid by the people to force the laboring men down to the starving point."

"IS A DIRTY DEAL AND A PUT UP JOB,"

So Said The Mayor of Bellevue When Released On Bond Under a Charge of Bribery in Lighting Contract.

Cleveland, Oct. 14.—Mayor H. F. Billmeyer, Bellevue, pleaded not guilty to a charge of bribery before Judge Beacom in common criminal court today. He was indicted in the Bellevue lighting case.

Bond in the sum of $1,000 was furnished and this afternoon the mayor went to Bellevue.

"It is a dirty deal and all a put up job on me" was the manner in which the mayor expressed himself concerning the charge, and the whole situation from which it sprang.

"I was working in the interest of the people of Bellevue," he continued.

The mayor was represented at the preliminary hearing by Judge C. P. Wickham, of Norwalk, who will have charge of his defense.

PRICE OF WHEAT MAKES GOOD GAIN.

Urgent Demand For Cereal Due to Scarcity for Milling Purposes Sent December and May Up Over Two Cents.

Chicago, Oct. 14.—The price of both December and May wheat made a gain of more than 2 cents a bushel here today as the result of active covering by shorts. The urgent demand was due to a scarcity of wheat for milling purposes in the northwest and southwest and to a report of the French minister of agriculture estimating a shortage of 73,000,000 bushels in this year's yield of wheat compared with last year's crop. The high point on December was reached at $1.12. In the meantime May advanced to $1.12 1/2.

The market closed only a trifle below the highest point of the day.

New York, Oct. 14.—There was a comprehensive advance in prices on the opening dealings in stocks today. The industrial and specialties continued prominent in the dealings. Brooklyn Transit rose a point, sugar 1/4 and U. S. Steel preferred 1/4. Railroads shared in the demand and advanced throughout. Gains ranged up to a cent.

Very Dilute.

Champ Clark relates many instances of the grim humor that was so prominent a characteristic of the late Senator Vest, of Missouri.

Mr. Clark tells how, during one of Vest's campaign tours in the early 90s, it was necessary for him to sojourn over night in the town of St. Charles. The best hotel there the place afforded was poor enough, and at breakfast Vest was especially put out by the stuff that was placed before him for coffee.

After having sampled the beverage Vest, with a frown, called for the proprietor. When that individual had appeared the senator asked, with a wave of his hand toward the offending liquor.

"Sir, what is this stuff?" "Coffee!" repeated Vest, in a scorn. "My friend, I could insert a coffee bean in my mouth, dive into the Missouri river, swim to the town of Alton, Ill., and I'll guarantee that one could bail up better coffee than this over the entire route!"—Louisville Times.

SOME QUALIFICATIONS.
 The attention of every lady in Lima whose love for her children, and whose regard for the family pocket book dictates to her that the most sacred institution of this city, other
 than her churches, the public schools,
 should be kept free from the containing influence of politics and graft,
 is called to the democratic primary
 notice published in this issue.

They will find therein this paragraph:

"The ladies of the city of Lima who will be entitled to vote at the November election for members of the board of education, shall have the right, and
 are invited to participate by their ballots in the selection of candidates for members of board of education, as above stated."

There is no equivocation about that statement. There are no arbitrary stipulations. Do you read any such a statement in the call issued by the republican city committee?

Bearing on this subject the republican call says:

"All persons known to be republicans, and all persons who will cast their first vote November 8th, under oath that they will support the republican ticket this fall, will have a right to participate in this election of delegates to said convention."

Driven to a corner in their subterfuge to control, and if necessary to go so far as to disfranchise the old
 line, honest republicans of the city,
 the Ginn & Co. organ this morning seeks to save the gang from defeat in a lengthy tribute to the ladies, in which it says:

"Every woman of the age of twenty-
 one years or more is entitled to vote
 at the republican caucuses on the 17th."

That sounds nice, but listen to the qualifications attached to the Republican Gazette second qualified and official call, which is a greater insult than the first, and God knows that was rank enough in its ignoring of the women. It says:

"However, for the benefit of the Times-Democrat, the democratic party,
 and the assurance of the ladies,
 it is stated that every woman in Lima
 over twenty-one years of age is entitled to a vote at the coming election
 for members of the board of education. And likewise, Every Woman in Lima Of Voting Age is entitled to a vote at the republican caucuses for
 the nomination of candidates for membership on the board of education,
 such caucuses to be held at the usual
 places of voting in all the voting precincts of the city on Monday evening, October 17, provided, however, they acknowledge such participation in said caucuses as a pledge that they will support the Republican ticket
 at the Regular Election, just as is required of their fathers, brothers and husbands, all rule and requirements in this respect being the same for the ladies as for the men."

"The only stipulation is that they acknowledge and respect the pledge implied by voting at the republican caucus to support the republican ticket
 at the polls in November."

In other words, ladies you have got to swear when you go to the republican caucus to vote that you will on Nov. 8th, cast your ballot for the Campbell-Quail school board ticket,
 for that is the one that is going to be nominated at the republican primary, and that you give your tacit
 consent to a complete change in text books without competition to those published by Ginn & Co.

And after you have sworn, they ask you to respect your oath.

Editor Campbell, "Boss" Quail and Ginn & Co., must think the good women of Lima are fools, devoid of conscience, and the willing tools of looters.

HANDED SOME WARM ONES.

H. B. Martin, National Secretary of the American Anti-Trust League, sent to President Roosevelt at Oyster Bay
 a rather lengthy letter arranging
 the position of the administration on the most question, and saying that the experience of the Anti-Trust
 League with the president and ex-Attorney General Knox will throw some strong light on their attitude.

He says that at frequent intervals
 he and other officers of the league
 furnished the president with "positive,
 documentary, and convincing proofs"
 of the violations of law by the trusts,
 and that promises made at these times
 were broken. He says that the action of the administration against the Northern Securities Company was against the newest of the trusts,
 which hardly had time to do much damage even if it was so disposed.

Mr. Martin asserts that the president's claim that he has "executed
 the laws resolutely and fearlessly"
 cannot be made to apply to the enforcement of anti-trust laws, and that evidence in the administration's possession was not only put aside, but other evidence equally preponderant was not sought. On this the Mr. Martin
 says:

"The only two actions begun by
 the administration in the enforcement of the laws against the trusts were against the Northern Securities Company and the American Anti-Trust League. The first was a failure, and the second was a success. The first was a failure because the president
 and his advisers were not prepared to enforce the laws against the trusts
 in the case of the Northern Securities Company. The second was a success
 because the president and his advisers

action for an injunction against the Northern Securities Company and against the trust. The first we have already referred to, and the injunction against the trust in the district court has never been carried to the higher court, while the trust has been openly violating both law and the injunction to your knowledge, and to mine,
 and to that of every citizen of the United States.

Three years ago the officers of the American Anti-Trust League placed in the possession of your administration positive proofs, incontestable documentary evidence of flagrant and enormously oppressive and injurious violations of the law on the part of half a dozen of the greatest trusts in the United States. Both you and your attorney-general repeatedly promised, sometimes orally and sometimes in writing, that these cases would be taken up and proceeded with. Every one of these promises you have broken."

Mr. Martin takes issue with the statement in the president's letter that
 "the creation of a bureau of corporations and amendments to the interstate commerce laws has for the first time given a chance to the national government to deal intelligently and adequately with the questions affecting society whether for good or evil,
 because of the accumulation of capital
 in great corporations, and because of the new relations caused thereby."

And what have you done Mr.
 President, with the bureau of corporations since it was organized? Mr.
 Martin asks, "You appointed your private secretary, Mr. Corbelyou, as head of that department, and then,
 after he had collected all the data
 possible about violations of the law
 on the part of the trusts, did you transmit this data in proper report to congress or the people? Oh no! The bureau of corporations, which was intended as a bureau of publicity, you have made into a bureau of secrecy."

You transferred Mr. Corbelyou
 from the head of that department, with all this secret information about the trusts in his possession, to the position of chairman of the republican national committee, where he can use
 his information to sandbag campaign contributions out of the trusts for your campaign fund, Mr. President.

"Against all the hundreds, ave-
 thousands of men who have been practicing plunder and extortion upon the people in violation of the anti-trust law, which provides for their punishment, fine, and imprisonment, you and your attorney-general have not caused a single warrant to issue, nor a single arrest to be made, nor the conviction
 of a single one to be secured."

"Nay, even worse, for to the most powerful and notorious of these offenders against the anti-trust law, the proofs of whose criminality had already been placed in your hands, you extended the hospitalities of the white house, and in return accepted their hospitality."

The absence from their usual
 haunts of "Boss" Quail, and his man
 "Friday" has caused evidence to be given to the story that both have gone
 to adjacent counties to adopt children, in order that they may stand in a better light with the parents of the city, whose pockets they are trying to help Ginn & Co. rifle.

VOTES WILL NOT COUNT.
 Boss Quail will name the delegates to the republican city convention to nominate members of the board of education. Those delegates will do his bidding and the woman who goes to the republican caucuses Monday night to vote is simply wasting her time, for she will have no voice in the real work in Tuesday's convention. Under the democratic primary call, the nominations will be made by the voters and not by a crowd of pre-arranged Quail-inn delegates.

LADIES MUST REGISTER.
 The ladies of this city, who desire to participate in the selection of representative citizens for members of the board of education, will have to register. This is made necessary by a law passed by the last legislature.
 It will take but a moment's time, and will be free from any annoyance.

It can also be added that only those who register this year can vote at next year's primary elections.

This makes it imperative on those who have the future welfare of their children, and the family purse at heart, to register during this season
 of registration.

The next registration day is October 20th.

AND STILL THEY COME.

List of Grand Jury Victims Increases and Not Yet Complete.

Another Surprise Was Sprung When David Feulner and John Watkins Were Apprehended For Alleged Blackmail.

The wheels of the court are moving in accordance to the demands of the grand jury. The list of those who will have to answer for criminal offenses is on the increase and is not yet complete. The first announcement tinged with a public sensation, was made yesterday afternoon and reached the Times-Democrat in time for publication. Reference is made to the indictment of John C. Cronley, ex-county surveyor who, according to evidence furnished to the grand jury, has been guilty of an abuse of his office, having made alleged false and fraudulent evidence of indebtedness to the county auditor.

Mr. Cronley was served with a warrant by the sheriff during a visit to the court house and immediately made arrangements to give bond, which was fixed at $500. Being possessed with property on west Market street, the court accepted a bond signed by Mr. Cronley and his wife, and he was discharged until his case is called for presentation to the petit jury.

Another indictment, which will occasion surprise, especially at Bluffton, was made public this morning when David Feulner and John Watkins, both of Bluffton, were brought into court to give bond under an indictment for blackmail. The information given to grand jury is to the effect that charges were made by Feulner and Watkins against John U. Badertscher of indecent exposure of person, which, if true, would tend to disgrace and degrade him, and by means of such unlawful accusation they attempted to extort and gain from him certain money to the value of $100.

Both of the accused gave bond in the sum of $500 for their temporary release. Both of the accused are well known residents of the county which makes the situation in which they find themselves all the more surprising. They both claim innocence of the serious charge.

No warrants or authority to arrest were received by the sheriff from the clerk's office until four o'clock yesterday afternoon, but since then, the proper papers have been delivered, and a number who were kept on the "don't publish" list, have since been served and brought into court to give bond.

In addition to the list published yesterday evening, the following have been added:

DAVID FEULER, blackmail.
JOHN WATKINS, blackmail.
HARRY LONG, burglary and larceny.

IRVIN PELTIER, placing obstruction on railroad tracks.
CHAS. H. CHAPPELL, driving automobile at great speed.

There are still several yet to be served, but they are in reaching distance and will be taken into custody at the proper time.

A number of cases were investigated, but did not warrant an indictment and a list of discharges furnished the sheriff gave the following a release from the county jail: Geo. Smith, of Chicago, carrying concealed weapons; Fred Brazeau, Ed. Murphy, Fred Burkhardt and Ed. Peacy, threaten as assaults, Bert. Farran, provoking the peace, and Pus Schobe, assault and carrying concealed weapons.

STATEMENT

Of Asa Nim's Condition Is Denied.

Patient Continues to Improve, and Was Able to Sit Up and Take Nourishment.

An authorized report appeared in the Gazette yesterday morning concerning the condition of Asa Nims, the C. H. & D. freight conductor who attempted to take his life at the union station by sending a bullet into his brain. The article stated that Mr. Nims had shown a decided change for the worse, and all hopes of his recovery had been practically abandoned.

In direct contradiction, Mr. Nims still continues to show signs of improvement, has been able to sit up and take nourishment and the wound is healing nicely. He is perfectly rational and whatever brain disturbance there was does not seem to have materially affected him. His physician and wife have every reason to believe, at the present time at least, that his recovery will be complete.

LADIES MUST REGISTER.

The ladies of this city, who desire to participate in the selection of representative citizens for members of the board of education, will have to register. This is made necessary by a law passed by the last legislature. It will take but a moment's time, and will be free from any annoyance.

It can also be added that only those who register this year can vote at next year's primary elections.

This makes it imperative on those who have the future welfare of their children, and the family purse at heart, to register during this season of registration.

The next registration day is October 20th.

Then the Law

And a Fat Chauffeur Is In the Toils.

Mr. C. H. Chappell, Who Has an Aldermanic Flea In His Bonnet

Stands Charged In an Indictment By the Grand Jury With Auto-mobiling at Reckless Speed.

Chas. H. Chappell, the popular heavyweight republican candidate for councilman at large, had his even-temperament to the grim necessities of the law this morning when he was confronted by a deputy from the sheriff's office armed with a warrant and a copy of a grand jury indictment. The would-be framer of ordinances for the safety of the community found himself up against a section of the municipal statutes which he hopes to take an oath to support. True to the predictions of Mr. Dooley, Mr. Chappell had a choice between the poor house and the county jail and he evidently prefers the latter as he has been "going the pace that kills" with his "red devil" and now stands charged in court with having flagrantly violated the speed limit.

Mr. Rudy, one of the present republican members of council, was caught in the toils not long ago out his case got no further than the mayor's court where Mr. Rudy put up a couple of ten spots for driving faster than a walk. Now comes a candidate for the same office, who is alleged to have shown an utter disregard for the safety of pedestrians in his leisure moments perhaps in the gloom of cold damp corridors, the proprietor of the City Transfer may figure the cost of his automobile experience computing repairs, court costs and attorney fees, and agree with Mr. Dooley that the road to the poor house is fast enough by the automobile route.

If Mr. Chappell is wise, he will go back to the back.

The train will leave Defiance at 7:15 a. m. each morning and return in the evening. A new depot, like the one erected in Lima, is to be built at Defiance at once.

This is the most remarkable increase probably that has been recorded in a single month for years past."
